Yes, the rumors are true.... We have our own Double-Take Software band!

Join us for a party and release your inner Irishman - Featuring Cluster Funk - the Double-Take Software band!

We can't promise the next Aer Lingus flight to the Emerald Isle - but we can promise a rockin' good time at the finest Irish pub in Las Vegas. If you didn't get enough Double-Take Software at the show, come to our party!

Not familiar with Cluster-Funk yet? Just ask your friends who attended TechEd last few years and they'll have stories to share! Or check them out here: <http://www.doubletake.com/misc/vmworld08.aspx>

Here are the details:

Tuesday, September 16, 2008 from 8 p.m. to 11pm

Nine Five Irishmen at New York-New York

The Strip, Las Vegas, NV

I've been to the last 3 Cluster Funk parties for TechED and they were all awesome! Great fun, great band and a great party. Can't wait to see how this one shakes out.

Thanks Double-Take
