Tom Mancini,

Long time no see. I will be in Vegas also for this years show. I will have my wife, but would like to get together. Did you ever pick up that BMW Motorcycle you wanted?

Comming from the Cleveland area, really looking forward to my first VMworld.

The fact that it's in Vegas is just a bonus (that's my story and I'm sticking to it) 😊

David, this is David from Columbus. I am staying at the Venetian on the 33rd floor. Look me up maybe we can party or something...the rooms are sweet. I have my wife too. I posted in the Blackjack thread in the Twitter discussion looking for a game of all VMWorld people.

Hope to see you....

Later.
