Steeler Nation Unite

The Steelers are at the Browns Sunday Night ..

With Brady gone for the year, it is time to turn it up and set out sights on the AFC Title.

What a better time start then against the Brownies...

Any Steeler fans up for meeting at the Venetian Race and Sports lounge to catch the game?

Indeed.

I may wear my AFC North Championship Shirt or the SB XL All Team Shirt...

I assume we all will know each other from the Steeler colors we will have on..

What city are you coming in from?

I am coming in from MT. Airy MD (Between Baltimore and Frederick)

I would say get a table prior to the game....like around 4:00-4:30 ...to check out the other game highlights

They probably serve food...
