As a couple of other people have mentioned, there are a few sessions that I am really interested in but either didn't sign up soon enough to get a spot or have a conflict with another session.

I was hoping that we would receive the presentation materials for all of the sessions so I don't have to worry about missing info I wanted to hear in a session I am wait-listed for.

Does anyone know if this is the case?

Hi,

Do Attendees Get Notes for All Sessions?

Yes on vmworld.com we have all the sessions posted and streamed, you can search on previous years sessions as well. 07/06/05. The pdf's of all the slides are available for download on the site bar of each streaming session as well as lab notets etc. This years sessions will be posted and ready to go by the end of September.

Last year people streamed over 1/2 million sessions on VMworld.com.
