

VMWorld attendees from Sweeden?

This may sounds like I've got a few loose screws but, I am looking for an attendee whome I met on the bus back from the VMWorld party.

I know there were probably a few attendees from Sweden - but I'm hoping that someone can assist in contacting this person.

Any assistance is greatly appreciated.

Thanks!

VMWorld attendees from Sweeden?

Yep, we were a bunch! So it would help if you could be a bit more specific, like at what time did the bus leave for Vegas? Looks? A hint of what you were talking about on the bus? Did it involve a big, black, plastic bag? (If you don't know about the bag, don't ask! 😊).

Cheers!

To be more specific - the bus I was on headed from the speedway at about 11:30pm. He and I both sat at the front of the bus and talked about Europe mostly. He had dirty blond/brown hair that was long enough to tuck behind his ears. Nothing about black plastic bags though ;-).

We were supposed to meet at the Tao club - but got separated.

I know this is a shot in the dark..but, thanks for everyone's assistance!

Yepp, it's a shot in the dark from my side as well. Unfortunately I can't help you, can't remember any specific Swede matching your description...

Good luck with your "hunt"!
