

VMworld 2018 Speaker Pass Policy

Applicable to customer, partner, and other non-VMware speakers

Breakout Sessions

- For each breakout session, each presenter (up to two) will each receive one complimentary conference pass.

[Limit: One conference pass per presenter; two conference passes per session]

- If you are presenting in two or more breakout sessions, in addition to the complimentary conference pass, you will receive one complimentary night's accommodation at a VMworld designated hotel (room rates and taxes only).

[Limit: one complimentary hotel night]

Panel Discussions

- The moderator for each panel will receive a full conference pass.
- Each panelist will receive a 50% discount on a full conference pass at the eligible rate in effect at the time of registration.

[Limit: One moderator per session, one 50% discounted pass per eligible individual; four 50% discounted passes per panel discussion]

For any combination of speaker assignments not listed above:

- Additional pass allocation will be at the discretion of the VMworld team.

*Note: Passes and discounts are not transferable to attendees not designated as speakers or panelists for the assigned session.
